Now that we have
the light we need,
let us work together . . .
for are we not all
reaching for the same star?

1974-1975

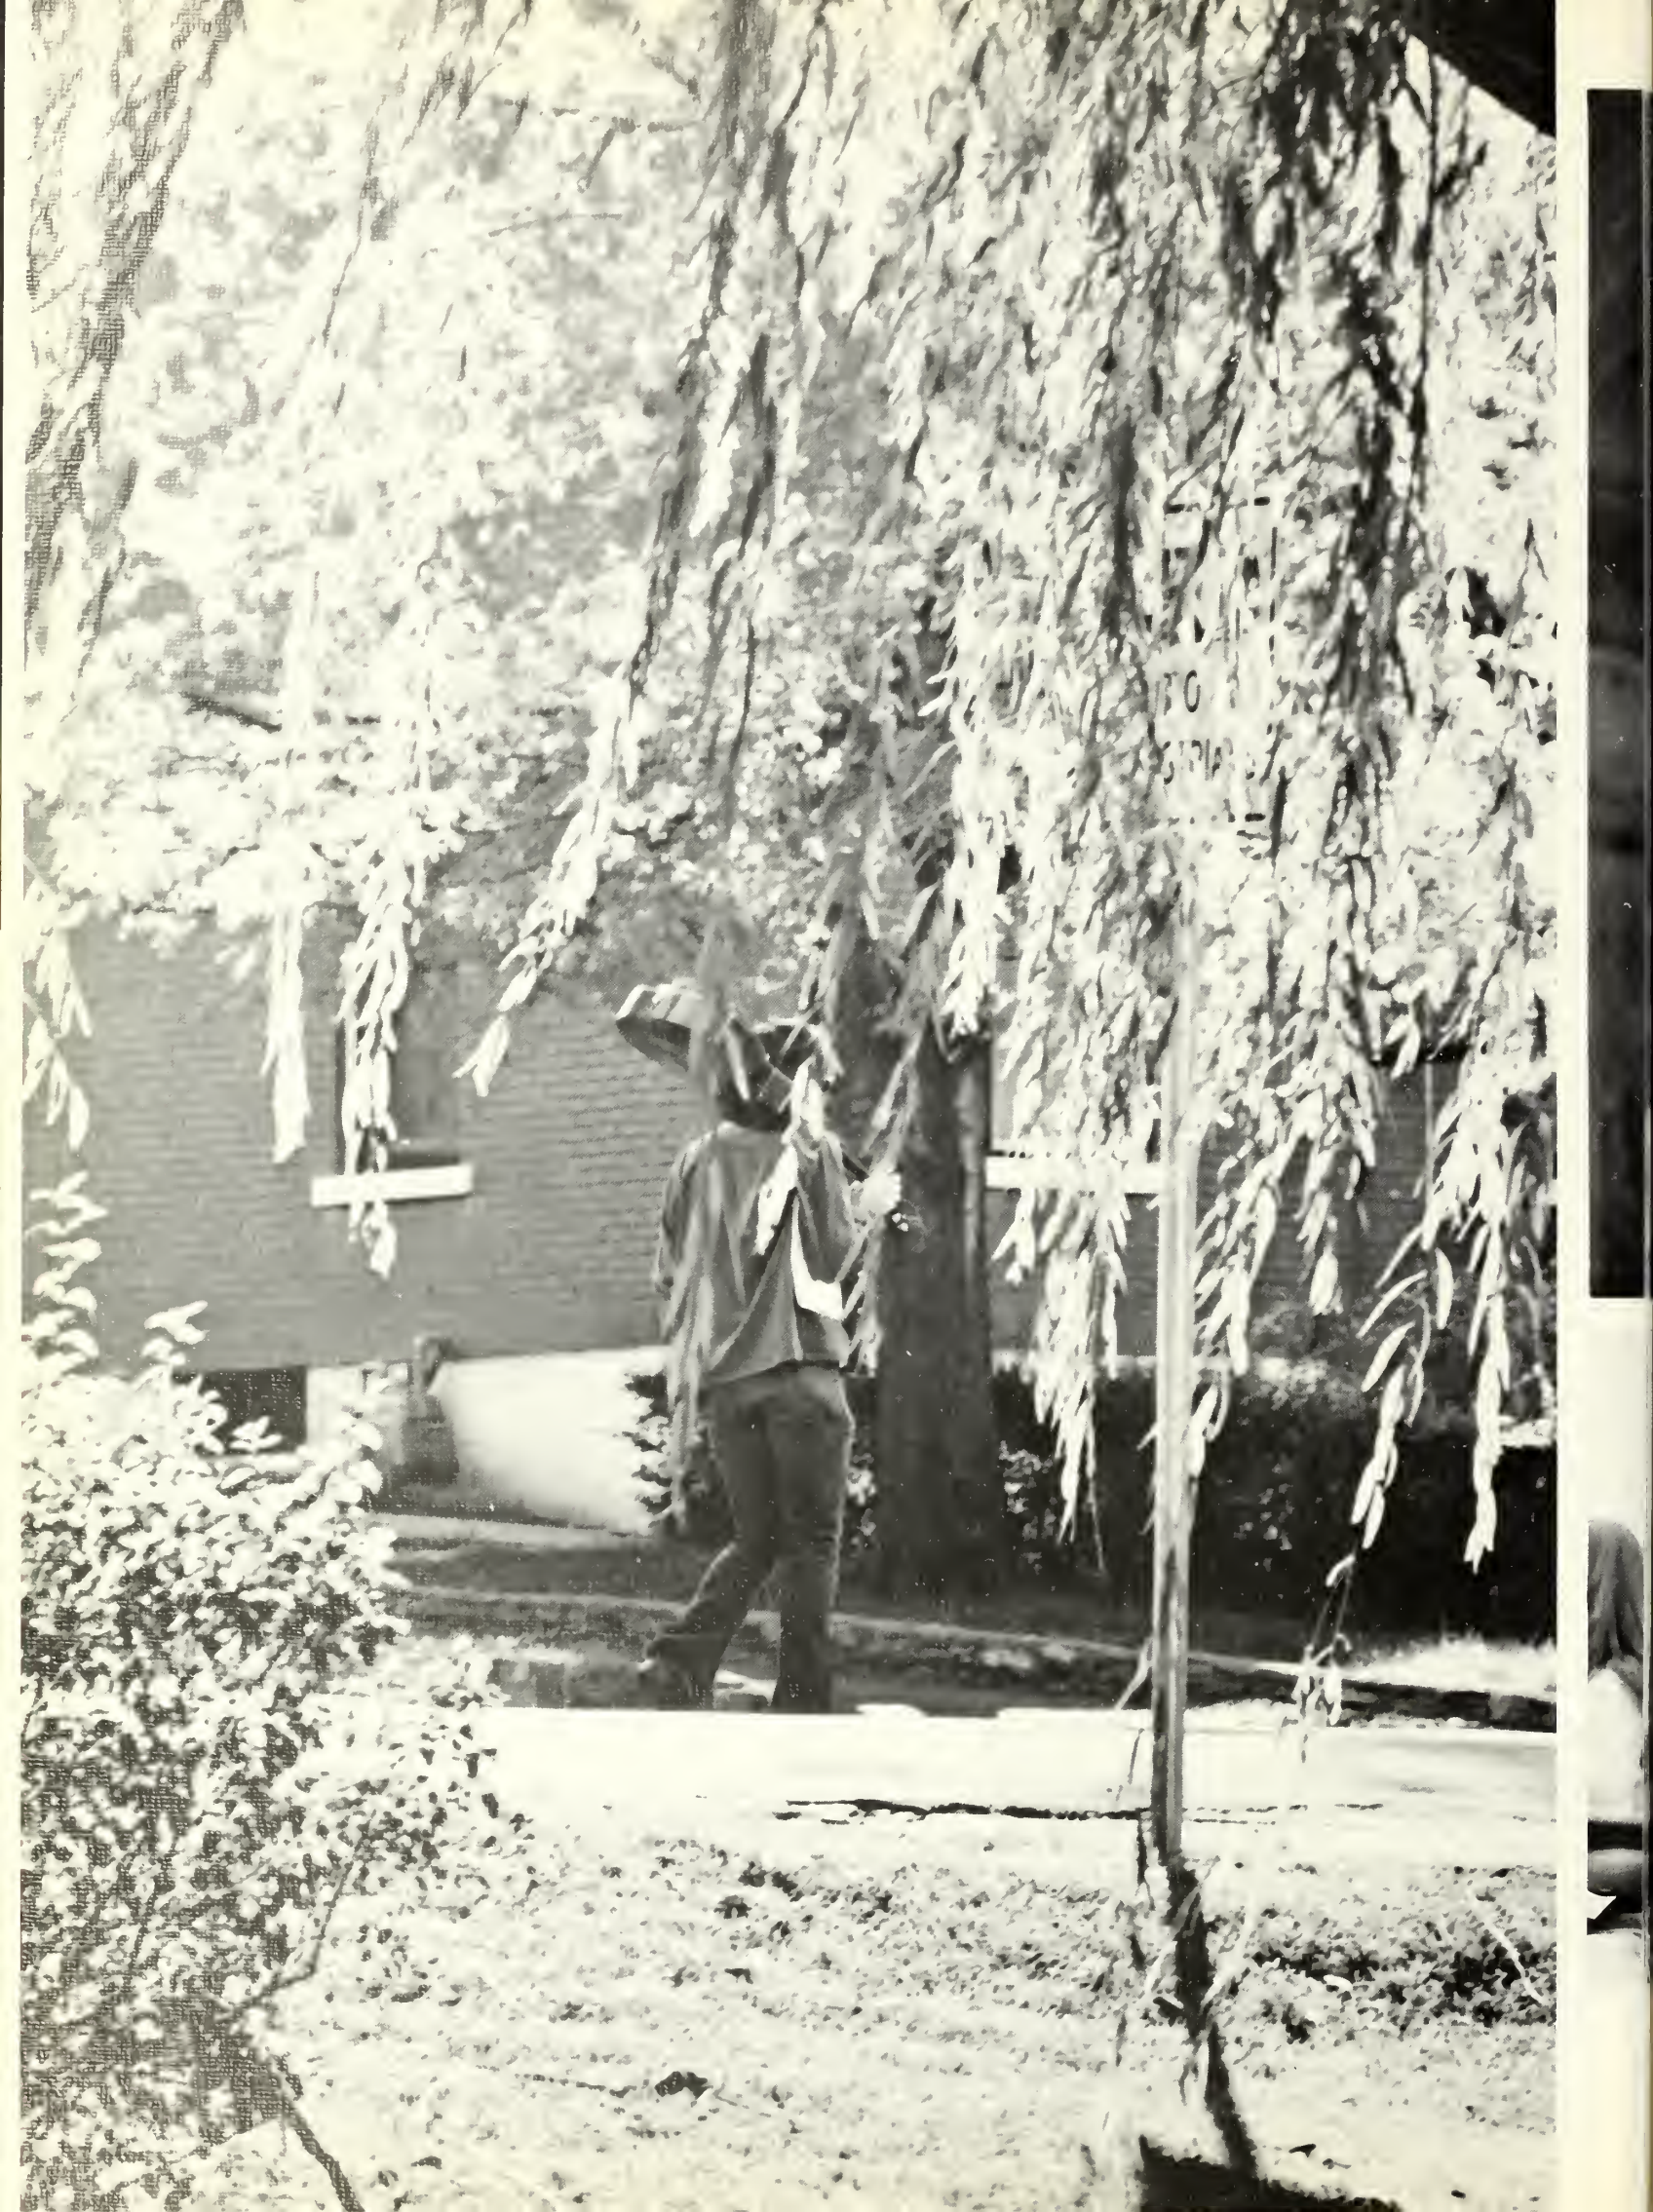

We work side by side
to achieve goals
that are much the same . . .

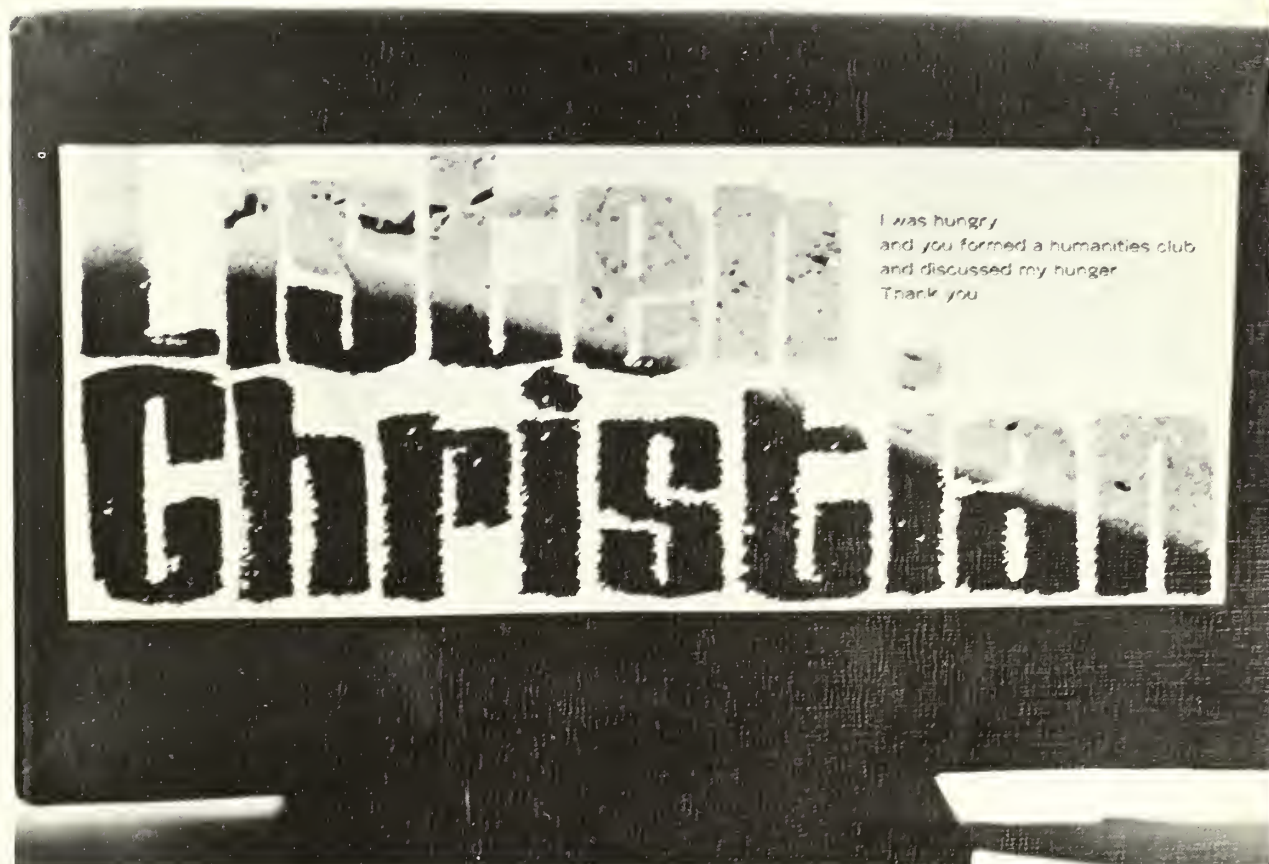

Yet,
are we
aware of our neighbor?

We speak of love
with great piety . . .

Yet,
are we willing
to love those who are different?

Let us
be the
torch-bearers
for humanity.

Let us join hands

and seek
a better,
brighter future.

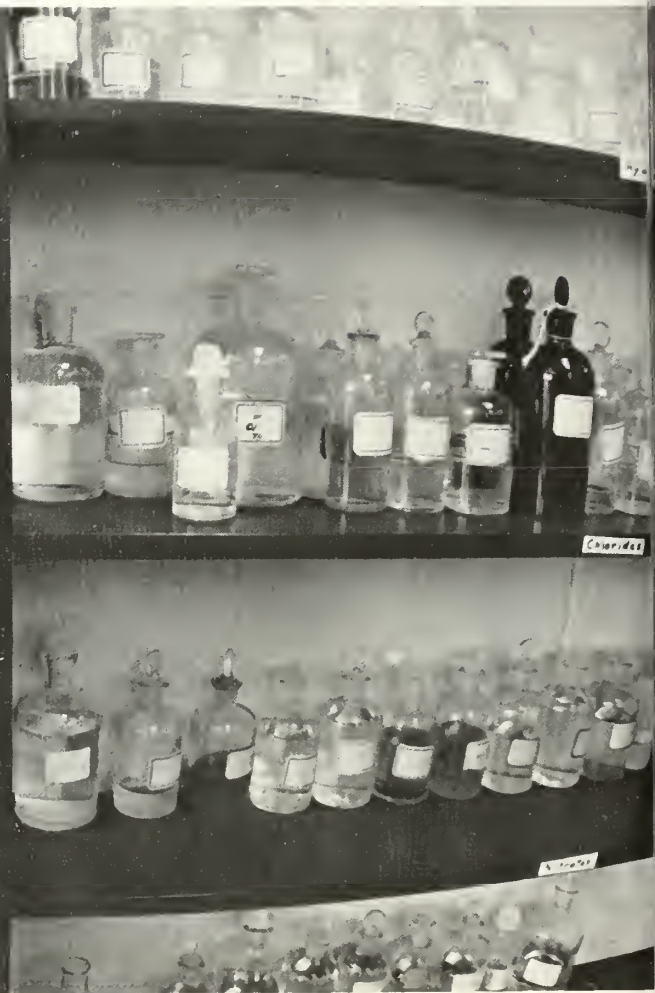

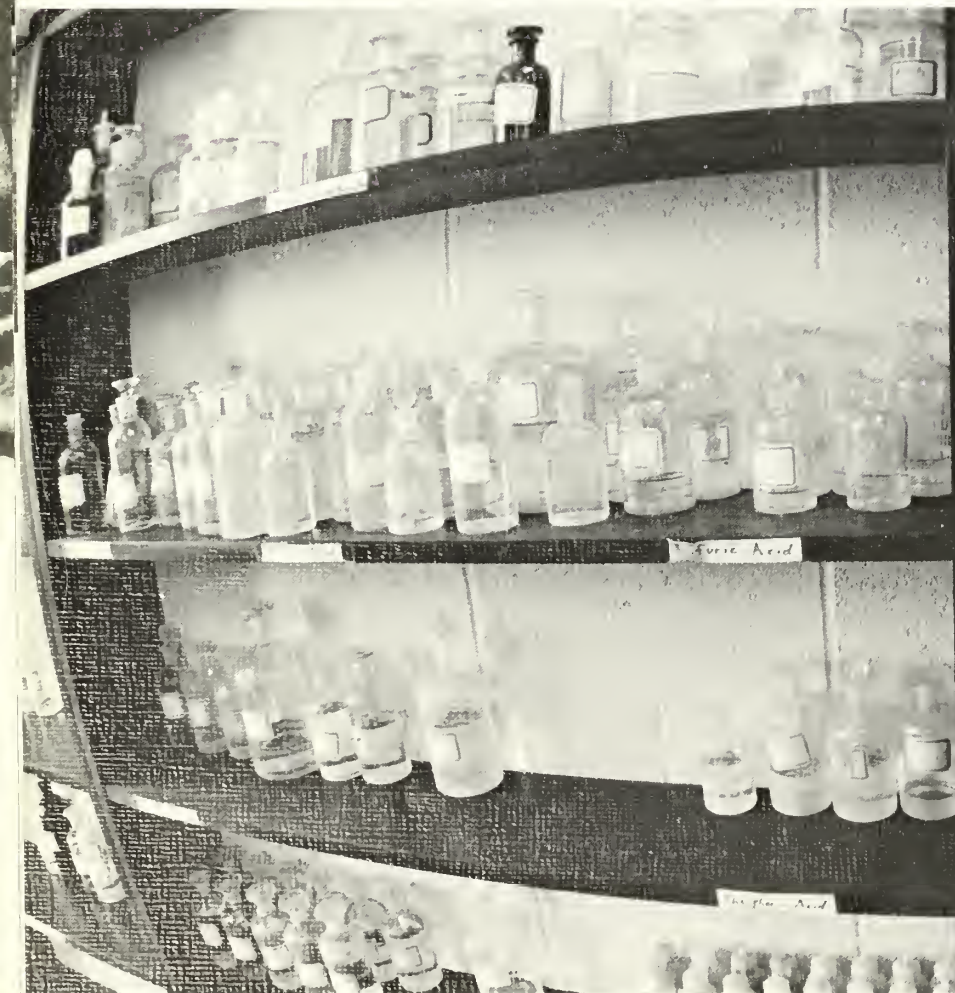

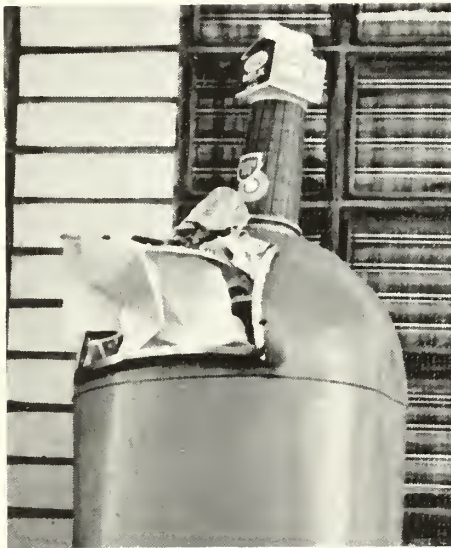

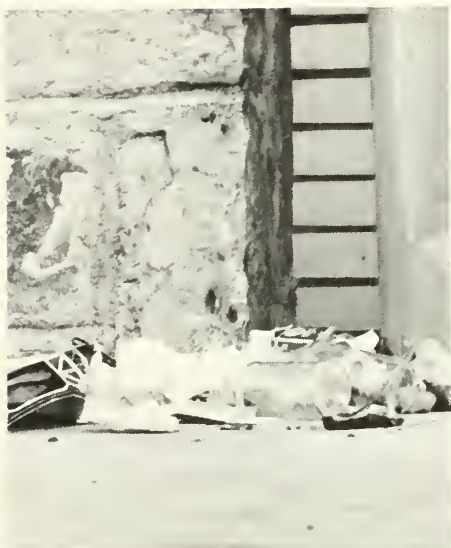

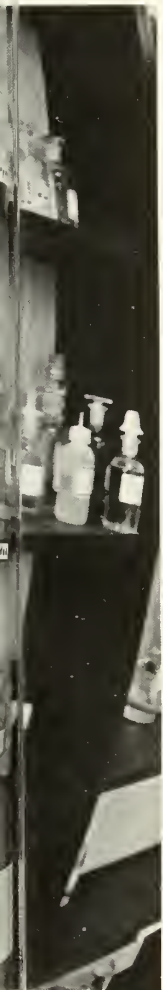

We can easily
forgive a child
who is afraid
of the dark;
the real tragedy
of life is when
men are afraid of the light.

Dedication

For all the love
and hard work
you have given
Trevecca, we the 1973-74 DARDA
staff, dedicate
this publication
to you, Coach
Bill Green.

The "Something Extra" College

The "Something Extra" (a vague,
meaningless tag),
if that is what TNC
uniqueness is supposed to be, must seek for
the 'extra' in other
directions than mere difference. The extra must come out from
the shadows, shed
its indefinite "Somethingness," clearly identify itself
so that it can be described, proclaimed,
put into practice
and called to account
for its progress or regress on its own
terms. Vagueness
simply will not do.

It asks of us

REACH FOR THE STARS

Dr. Mark R. Moore
DARDA-1973/74

My philosophy seems very simple—"Do what you can—with what you have—where you are—!"

At first glance this appears to make minimum demand. Some may see it a type of fatalism. However, through the years I have had occasion to give serious thought to this statement and have concluded that God will not require more of a Christian nor be pleased with less.

"DO WHAT YOU CAN"—there are needs so great and challenging that each of us could profitably give ten lives to the conquest of them and still need more. Since we have only one life, prudence requires that we give it with wisdom and with enthusiasm. George Matthew Adams said, "Enthusiasm is a kind of faith that has been set afire." Faith on fire makes the difference. The lukewarm attitude of one church provoked these words, "I will spue thee out of my mouth."

Paul's enthusiasm and faith on fire communicates confidence and hope when he said, "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me."

WHAT DO WE HAVE THAT REALLY MATTERS? An education, a physical body, the accumulation of things, goals, ideals or dreams? The values we hold in part determines what we have to work with or at least determine if our work will endure. God asked one man, "What is that in thy hand?" He further instructed him to take what he had and use it to fulfill his assignment. We too are challenged to do our best not merely because the work is worth it but because we are.

We have spent many months in these halls together. It is here that we have learned to know, trust and love one another. It is here that we have made or have failed to make use of the many opportunities to do what we can "WHERE WE ARE". One's education will be nearer complete if he has learned that it is here and now that life is being lived and it is in this place of reference that one makes his contribution. Demosthenes emphasized this when he said, "Small opportunities are often the beginning of great enterprises."

Set your goals high! REACH FOR THE STARS! But, remember that it will be step by step: one small goal reached after another that builds to satisfying living.

This, my philosophy, "DO WHAT YOU CAN—WITH WHAT YOU HAVE—WHERE YOU ARE", measured in the light of Christ's will for me becomes the most expensive life that I can live. It has and will cost me my all. The justification for paying such a price is the rich fulfillment of life now and the sure hope of its eternal continuance with Him.

There has to be a song.
There are too many dark nights,
too many troublesome days,
and too many wearisome miles,
there has to be a song.
To make our burdens bearable,
to make our hopes believable,
to transform our successes into praise.

Somewhere,
down deep in a forgotten corner of each man's heart
there has to be a song.
Like a cool, clear drink of water
there has to be a song.

The John T. Benson Publishing Company
Publishing the best in religious music since 1902.
Because there has to be a song.

Years of Service
To The Community
And College

Individual Student Portraits By

CAIN SLOAN, INC.

It has been a year of gas rationing, meatless Mondays, and Watergate. There were floods in the Mississippi Valley, earthquakes in Chile, and continued fighting in the Middle East.

We, on the "hill," have not been unaware of these happenings. We have not been as involved as most Americans, yet we have faced the problems with a sincere concern and anxiety for our country. However, we at Trevecca have an "edge" on most of the country in facing our problems. Not only do we have a love for our brothers, but we have the guidance and love of God.

"Now that we have the light we need, let us work together, for are we not all reaching for the same star?"
